Recent collections: Newcastle Emlyn 7/7£123.70; Cardigan 8/7 £278.98, UCM £264.63. Thank you for your generosity.

Collection by Direct Debit Payments: are payments that are made directly from your bank account to the Church (instead of weekly giving). These payments are a huge help to our weekly collection, as they make the role of our counters so much easier – ie there is less money to be counted, but still ensuring a parish income. Please consider joining this scheme – there are forms available at the back of the Church, or from Sr Angela. A big Thank you to all who have helped so far!

Data protection forms: are now essential for us to be able to keep your details on our files. There are forms on the newsletter stand – please take one and return it completed. Your details are always kept securely, however the law requires we now have your documented permission to keep them. Thank you for your help.

What can you do to help?: Together we form the community of the Church – the Mystical Body of Christ. So many people help out in our two parishes, for the good of the community as a whole, and we all benefit from their kindness and generosity. Whether they are helping in the Mass by reading, or as extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, or serving, or singing, or giving out or collecting hymn books or counting the collection – no matter what they do, they are helping the community of the Faithful – that is you and me. Some people help organise social or celebration events, or clean the Church, or arrange flowers or help with the tending of the grass, grounds or repairs to buildings – They serve the Church – you and me. Many of the people who do it are in their more mature years 70's, 80's, even approaching 90's ... When they are not able to do it What will happen? Should we be expecting them to keep going and serving us – the community, until they are no longer able? Is this right or even just? Please consider how you can help your community, and through your valuable gift of time, energy and skill – build up the community of the Church – The Mystical Body of Christ. If you can help – please see Fr Phillip or Sr Angela. Thank you.

Thank you for your help with the UCM Pilgrimage: many thanks for your help in making the members of the Union of Catholic Mothers from around Wales welcome for their annual pilgrimage. God reward your kindness!

Sincere Thanks: to two of the kind volunteers in Cardigan – Keith and Jill Whitehead for the work they have done on the garden flowerbeds and planters in Cardigan – the blaze of colour looks fantastic, and has been commented on by many! Also thanks to Christine, Idwal and a few other volunteers, who have tended the pots of flowers around the Church in Newcastle Emlyn. All your hard work displays the care and practical support you show the community – God reward your kindness!!

Priestly Ordination of Deacon Matthew Roche-Saunders: will be on Saturday 4th August in St Joseph's Cathedral in Swansea at 11:30am. There will be a bus from our parishes, so please reserve a place. Contact Sr Angela, or put your name on the list to reserve a place – Thank you.
