Thank you for your prayers and consideration: as my father is making slow but steady progress on the road to recovery – this coming week he has some medical appointments that I need to attend with my parents. I hope the change in Mass times will not be too much of an inconvenience. Thank you so much – Fr Phillip

Second Collection: Thank you for your support of the Sick and retired Priests of our Diocese.

Building update: The Building work on the Church in Cardigan is progressing at a pace, and we hope to be back in the building in the near future. With the hoarding removed, you can now see the extent of the building and redevelopment work. There is still much electrical work to be completed, and some plumbing. The glazing has, please God, been resolved, and the structure has been completed. As soon as the work is completed, a deep clean can take place, and we will be back in!

The ethics group: will be meeting on Wednesday 5th Feb , 7.30pm at TreAllt, Eglwysrwr (01239 891291) New faces welcome!

ARTISTS – Year of the Word: The Arts have always had an important role to play in communicating the message of God to the people. The Diocese of Menevia is going to have an exhibition, in Swansea from the 18th July 2020, of work from artists all around the diocese. If you are an artist who can contribute work to this, please join us by contacting Peter Cooper at email peter.art@btinternet.com or phone on 01547 528761.

St Angela and St Tomas Aquinas: both were inspired by God to bring the light of knowledge and understanding to all. St Angela, who not only did all she could to educate Children, especially poor girls who were often denied the opportunity of learning, but established the Ursuline Order, and they continue her founding work to this day! St Thomas is arguably one of the greatest minds, and teachers of our Catholic Faith, and like many Dominicans, was not only passionate about learning, but dedicated to share that learning with others.

May they both pray for us as we keep their feast days this week!

“The Lord is knocking on the door of our hearts. Have we put a sign on the door saying ‘Do not disturb’ ?” – Pope Francis

The Parish Feast Day in Cardigan Sunday 2nd February

The feast of the Presentation of the Lord is our Parish Feast day. As it falls on Sunday, we replace the Sunday Readings to enable us all to celebrate.

After Mass, we will have a celebration in the hall, and it would be wonderful if we could all bring a plate of something to eat, and share it with others.

Refreshments will also be available.
