Pilgrimage Planning Meeting: There will be a meeting soon, to discuss and make final arrangements for volunteers for the Welsh National Pilgrimage to Cardigan. Please consider coming along to help and get involved. The welcome and kindness of the Community here in Cardigan is one of the things that makes the pilgrimage a truly spiritual experience for the pilgrims who travel distances to come here. The more volunteers – the merrier!

Keeping the Grounds looking Beautiful: In Cardigan, Keith, Jill, Patrick and a few other kind people spend their time and energies in making the grounds of the National Shrine looking beautiful for visitors and parishioners alike. There are always plenty of opportunities for people to get involved and help with making the place look warm and welcoming, especially during the Pilgrimage season. There is both need and welcome for anyone to get involved. If you can spare some time and energy, please see Jill Whitehead, and she can advise you. Thank you in advance for your generous support.

Sincere Thanks: To Fr Augustine Pikkatt, who has been supplying in Cardigan and Newcastle Emlyn from the 27th of April to 9th May. It has been wonderful to have him here, and we will keep him in our prayers – Thank you Father for being here!
