Blwyddyn Newydd dda i chi gyd

A very happy New Year to you all!!

If you are visiting for the Christmas Holiday: a very warm welcome to you all!

Crib offerings this year: Will be given to the Mikey Cura Foundation, which is set up to help children with heart conditions (he was an altar server in Morryston Parish and died as he made the Camino pilgrimage with his school).

Many sincere thanks: to all who have helped in any way to prepare and decorate the churches in Cardigan (Hall) and Newcastle Emlyn for Christmas – they look beautiful !

Blessing your home on the feast of the Epiphany: is an ancient tradition to ask God's blessing on your home for the coming year. It is usually done by the senior member of the family, and if there are children in the home, it is always a good way of involving them in praying together, and asking God to bless the family. Please take some chalk and an instruction sheet from the back of the Church, and consider marking your home together as a family and praying together. May you enjoy peace, health and many graces together over the coming year!

Did you know?: In Spain, gifts are not exchanged at Christmas, but on the feast of the Epiphany, so this weekend, there will be much celebrating in Spain as people show their love for family and friends by giving them gifts – just as the Magi brought gifts of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh to the Christ Child. Why not give a small gift to someone on this feast, and remind them of the gifts we bring to our Infant King of Love.

My Grateful Thanks: for your very generous cards, gifts, Christmas offerings and well wishes at Christmas. Your kindness is humbling, and I am truly grateful to serve as your priest. Please be assured of my sincere gratitude and my daily prayers for you all.

12th night: is traditionally when the Christmas trees and decorations are taken down in our homes, and in public places, however, our celebration of the Christmas Season continues until the feast of the Baptism of Our Lord, which is Sunday 12th January – why not keep your crib and decorations up until then? ☺
